

CELEBRATING LITERACY & READING THIS FEBRUARY

Building Knowledge, One Resource at a Time

This February, we're celebrating the power of literacy and reading in the workplace. Strong reading skills are the foundation of workplace safety, professional growth, and effective communication. Join us in recognizing the importance of literacy by exploring resources that make a real difference in Canadian workplaces.

FEBRUARY SPECIAL OFFER

Enjoy 15% off our entire resource library all month long!
Use Code: READING15 at checkout

FEATURED RESOURCE: English for Workplace Safety eBook

Empowering Workplace Safety Through Language Learning

Building safer workplaces starts with the right tools! This comprehensive resource is designed to build essential workplace safety knowledge while strengthening English communication skills.

What's Included:

- ✓ Real workplace tasks, forms, and safety documents
- ✓ OH&S law, PPE, and workplace hazards
- ✓ Communication practice through role plays and activities
- ✓ Flexible learning for classroom, workplace, or independent use

Perfect for:

- ✓ Newcomers entering the Canadian workforce
- ✓ Team members strengthening their safety communication skills
- ✓ Anyone preparing for employer-required safety courses

Why It Works: Developed by AWES in partnership with the Alberta Construction Association and Alberta Construction Safety Association, this eBook and workbook is ideal for anyone with intermediate English proficiency looking to succeed in Canadian workplaces.

Click to explore English for Workplace Safety

Click to browse our full resource library

Have Questions?

We're here to help you find the right resources for your workplace needs. Whether you have questions about our courses or want to discuss how AWES can support your organization, we'd love to hear from you.

Contact:

Leila Samahnejad Business Development and Project Lead leila@awes.ca